Canadian Pharmacists Conference 2014: Message from the co-hosts

As CPhA Board President, I am proud that CPhA will be partnering with the Association of Faculties of Pharmacy of Canada (AFPC) and The Pharmacists’ Association of Saskatchewan (PAS) to jointly host the Canadian Pharmacists Conference 2014! From May 31–June 3, pharmacists from across Canada will gather in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, for three days of exceptional continuing education and amazing networking opportunities. We’re thrilled to be working with AFPC and PAS to put together an expanded education program, covering a wide range of issues affecting your practice and profession. Watch for updates on our website, Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn. As pharmacy continues to evolve, it is critical that we stand united and continue to collaborate together whenever opportunity arises. Looking forward to seeing you in Saskatoon!

Sherry Peister, President, Board of Directors, CPhA

David Edwards, President, Board of Directors, AFPC

On behalf of the Board of Directors of AFPC, we are pleased to partner with the Canadian Pharmacists Association and The Pharmacists’ Association of Saskatchewan in holding our annual Canadian Pharmacy Education and Research Conference (CPERC) in Saskatoon. We look forward to discussing contemporary issues in pharmacy education and practice in conjunction with pharmacy educators and practitioners from across Canada. The friendly people of Saskatoon make it a great city to visit in June and we are pleased to join the celebrations honouring the 100th anniversary of the University of Saskatchewan’s College of Pharmacy and Nutrition. I look forward to seeing you in Saskatoon.

Christine Hrudka, Chair, Board of Directors, PAS

As Chair of the Board of PAS, I am very pleased to have the opportunity to partner with the Canadian Pharmacists Association and the Association of Faculties of Pharmacy of Canada for an exciting joint conference. Saskatchewan has a rich history of collaboration and partnerships, and we are excited to bring this unique event to Saskatchewan and Canadian pharmacists. I am certain this will be an exciting program and the educational and networking opportunities will be unprecedented. We look forward to showcasing our province and the City of Saskatoon, participating in a wonderful educational program, and enjoying the new partnerships and friendships this conference will build. See you in Saskatchewan in June!

Centennial Celebration

The College of Pharmacy and Nutrition at the University of Saskatchewan is celebrating its centennial year in 2013-2014. This is very exciting for the College, the University, alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends as they reflect on the past 100 years and look to their future.

The College will be hosting a number of events throughout the year, including Saskatchewan Fun Night at the Canadian Pharmacists Conference 2014 in Saskatoon and an all-years reunion weekend on June 26-28, 2014.
Accommodation

Our conference co-host properties, the Sheraton Cavalier Saskatoon Hotel and the Delta Bessborough, are offering Canadian Pharmacists Conference 2014 delegates special room rates starting at $209.

SHERATON CAVALIER SASKATOON HOTEL
(Chost property site for most CPhA pre-conference meetings & events.)

The Sheraton Cavalier Saskatoon Hotel is ideally situated in downtown Saskatoon and overlooks the stunning South Saskatchewan River. Stroll along the Meewasin River Valley Trails, explore the many nearby boutique shops or try a unique dining experience in the city centre while you’re our guest in Saskatoon.

DELTA BESSBOROUGH
(Chost property site for most AFPC, PAS & SCP pre-conference meetings & events.)

Wander five acres of luxuriant gardens, walk along the South Saskatchewan River or simply soak in the architectural charm during your stay at this historic Saskatoon hotel. Originally built as a grand railway hotel, The Bessborough opened its doors in 1935.

These two properties are across the street from each other and are located less than 1km from TCU Place.

TO BOOK YOUR ROOM: Visit our conference website at www.pharmacists.ca/conference for online and telephone booking instructions. NOTE: While rates are guaranteed for all bookings made by 5pm CT on May 6, the Canadian Pharmacists Conference blocks at both hotels may sell out before this deadline. Rates are valid for stays up to three days before and three days after the conference.

Transportation

Shuttle service will be provided between the Sheraton Cavalier/Delta Bessborough and TCU Place for the Trade Show and conference sessions on June 1–3. TCU Place is less than 1km from the co-host hotels.

TCU PLACE
Guest Program

MONDAY, JUNE 2
Spend the day exploring Saskatoon and its surrounding area. After breakfast at the hotel, travel by coach to Wanuskewin Heritage Park, a national historic site featuring a Northern Plains Indian cultural interpretive centre and scenic trails. A picturesque lunch cruise along the Saskatchewan River will take you under four of the city’s nine bridges and features wonderful views of Saskatoon’s parks and opulent residences. After lunch you’ll visit the Mendel Art Gallery, Saskatoon’s premier destination for contemporary and historical art. Open to all accompanying guests, this is an excellent way to enjoy the best of the city and the conference. Fees are separate from the delegate program.

GUEST PROGRAM FEES
- Adult: $295
- Child 12 and under: $147.50

Price includes:
- Breakfast & Lunch
